This is astonishing – 143% increase in carjackings over last year!!

Can we have a conversation about what needs to be done?

We should be charging Agg Robbery every time it fits the facts .

Carjacking is NOT a 100% time offense. Def can get probation and/ or parole for CJ...

Thanks. Our detectives have the same belief.

TBI considers Carjackings as Robbery of individual. Our carjackings are not included in our auto theft count.

2018 YTD 43 carjackings. 143% increase over 2017

Thanks

We don't get carjacking incident figures from the TBI. (I'm not sure they even track that.) And I don't know what MPD/Sheriff's office figures show.

However, our significant increase in auto thefts may be for the same reasons as the increases in carjackings in Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, and Baltimore. (See attached article.) Juveniles stealing cars, using them for a few days, then ditching them may be the "juvenile gang member crime" of the moment.
